

Dr. S. RAMAKRISHNAN passed his PUC from NGM College in the year 1964 and joined in MBBS at Kilpauk Medical College, Chennai. Started his career as a Medical Officer in 1971 at Govt. Headquarters Hospital, Ooty. He left India in 1974 for better opportunities and PG Studies to Middle East and Europe .After training in UK, Germany and Austria, he returned to India as a specialist in Cardiology and started an exclusive center for Heart Diseases by name Pollachi Cardiac Center in1984. He is member and fellow of many National and international societies I cardiology and also held various important posts in the regional, state and national levels. Apart from his profession, he is also deeply involved in many service organizations and extends his helping to the needy.