HR POLICY

(Recruitment Policy, Terms and Conditions of Employment)

The objective of Recruitment Policy

The basic objective of a good Recruitment and Selection Policy is to make sure that the right candidate is hired following the right process for hiring and selection. There must be a sync between the hired candidate and organizational values, philosophy, and goals.

Purpose of Institution Recruitment Policy:

The purpose behind the policy is to attract and select the candidate who is outstanding and this requires a sound and systematic recruitment approach.

Principle of Recruitment Policy

Below mentioned Principles must be followed while recruiting employees:

1. As per Institution Policy, it believes in the open competition ways for recruitment.
2. The Institution makes sure that the right and meritorious candidate is hired through the recruitment process and it also ensures that the most suitable candidate is identified.
3. The Institution makes sure that the recruitment and selection of candidates happen in a professional way and by following the rules and regulations under employment legislation.
4. The Institution also ensures that all its employees involved in the recruitment and selection process are well trained. The Institution provides training to all its employees to make them satisfied that they are well trained to carry on recruitment and they comply with the regulations under the employment policy.
5. The recruitment must be carried out in a manner that enhances the image of the Institution outside.
6. The Institution also put in its best efforts to carry out the process in a transparent and effective manner wherein all candidates are treated equally and fairly so that the recruitment experience is a positive one in the Institution.
7. The Institution believes in inculcating new and innovative practices in its recruitment process and will promote best practices.
8. The Institution also tries its best to make sure that this process is carried out in a very cost-effective manner.
9. Any employee in the recruitment team who has a close relationship with any of the candidates applying for any position in the Institution must make sure that it is declared by the employee at the beginning of the recruitment process and he/she will not be involved in any decision-making process.
10. All the information provided by the candidate must be treated with confidentiality and must not be shared with any third agency and apart from Interview panel committee members.

Recruitment Selection Policy and procedure:

There are various stages in the Recruitment and Selection Procedure. The Important stages are explained below:

Preparation Stage:

1. This is the first stage of the recruitment procedure. Before starting recruitment a thorough analysis of the need of position is carried out. Why a particular position is required is studied in detail.
2. After need analysis, the budget is determined for the position. Budgetary studies mean what's going to be the expense of hiring for this particular position.
3. The Institution's hiring policy stress upon diversity in the workforce so that major emphasis is given to the candidates whose skill set is not in abundance in the Institution. All the efforts being made to make such candidate attracted towards the Institution.
4. In order to make a workforce diverse, the advertisement is targeted towards such a group.
5. All the new and existing positions for which hiring to be done must be advertised properly.
6. To determine the hiring expense and to understand the complete compensation details it is necessary to formally review the role and also know the complete grading system. It has to be determined in case of both new and existing vacant position.
7. Before commencing the recruitment process for any given position, it is necessary to take all relevant approvals formally.
8. In case there are issues related to any given position, instance for an urgent position, the desired skill set employee is difficult to be identified or relevant talent pool is not available. In such issues, Dean Academic / Dean Research and AVP HR can be approached formally.

Steps to be followed under HR Recruitment Policy

1. The Job description for the vacancy

- a.) The next step after the preparation stage lays the preparation of job description for a given vacancy. The job description is meant to describe the main duties and responsibility of a role. It must be either designed or if already available then it must be updated for any vacant position which is to be filled.

b.) The Job description must be prepared with complete care and it must have all the details required for a given position.

2. Job Specification:

- a) The job specification must describe the necessary skill set required, aptitude, knowledge required for the job profile and also experience for the job.
- b) The Personal specification must be prepared with utmost care so that details specified do not indirectly discriminate against any given group.

3. Advertising:

Another step after preparation of job description and person specification lies the advertising part:

1. According to internal policy, all advertisement for the job vacancy in the Institution must be posted both internally as well as externally. This is an important step towards the employee career development and job enrichment for existing employee to apply for the vacant position within the Institution.
2. Such steps also result in maximizing the equality of opportunity for all the employees.
4. Sometimes the position is not advertised internally, This can happen only after receiving a waiver from the Dean, AVP-HR, It occurs when:
  - a.Special expertise skills are a mandate for a given position or vacancy and extensive search has already been done but no match found within or outside the Institution except anyone given an individual. In such case, there is no need to advertise for the given vacancy.
  - b. When the given position is a contractual assignment and is not required for more than a year.
  - c.The given vacancy is for the shorter duration, the vacancy can be filled in by a substitute.
5. Advertising can also be done with the help of recruitment consultants/Direct posting through Paper publication Media / Advertisement Agency. The posting of job vacancy can be done both externally and internally. It is however agreed with the concerned approval authority in the Institution that hiring will take place as per clauses defined in recruitment and selection policy.
6. All details of the vacancy along with job description and person specification is shared with the recruitment consultant and internally in the Institution when posting IJP'S. This information is shared so that the applicant is well known with the desired details and they can check their suitability for the role. In case further details required HR department of the Institution can be approached for the same.

- 7.If any existing employee wishes to apply for vacant positions. It can be done through internal job posting based on the approval received from Dean Academic / Dean Research through concerned HoD, posted internally on the Institution's intranet/Requisition letter.
8. Any job posting regarding vacant positions across different geographic locations within the Institution is also posted on the Institution's intranet. The details and recruitment guidelines can be found under "International recruitment policy".
9. Candidates are requested to provide equal opportunity details. This information is separate from the job application and it is up to the choice of the candidate whether they want to share their details or not.
10. The Institution has a legal obligation to follow the rules and regulations as mentioned under the law and legal compliance. We can find that different laws and regulations which varies with the state and countries.
11. Wherever any information regarding vacant position is advertised it should be done by HR department.
12. Some exceptions wherein advertisements are not done by HR then it is done by some other department but all approval must be taken before posting any such advertisement. (Approval from Dean Academic / Dean Research and AVP-HR.)
13. All the job postings which are advertised both internally and externally as per the willing of Institution and/or are made available on the Institution's intranet.
14. The advertising must be done in a cost-effective manner, the budget and the amount to be spent on advertising is pre-decided and approved by Dean Academic / Dean Research, AVP-HR, Financial Approval Authority. The ambition for a robust recruitment process should be such that it does not turn out to be a very costly affair.

Selection of Candidate:

The selection of candidates also requires various steps which can be explained as:

1. The Dean Academic / Dean Research and the AVP-HR (hiring manager) forms a team for shortlisting of the desired profile. There is a whole team to carry on the shortlisting of profile but in order to avoid being biased generally, the recruitment and Dean Academic / Dean Research, Hiring manager shortlist the profile.

2. In order to serve the purpose of recruitment policy the selection and short listing team members must satisfy the eligibility criterion. It must have members Dean Research, Academic Specialists, and/or from the different department to promote the Institution's approach towards diversity.
3. Members of HR like AVP-HR and (for HR perspective) if any of the members nominated by AVP-HR/Dean Academic / Dean Research/ Dean Research etc are involved in the selection and short listing phase only for recruitment of senior profiles. Up to Assistant Manager level positions, it is the recruiter and direct hiring manager which are involved in short listing phase.
4. Major points must be noted for each candidate who has been shortlisted. These notes are generally attached with the resume of the candidate and it should be noted accurately by the Coordinator of Recruitment process also in its excel report. The same cover page with short listing notes as per recommendation in Interview evaluation forms along with resume is shared with the Dean Office and AVP-HR (HR department.)
5. The shortlisted candidate is shared with details of the selection process through email and telephonic conversation. In case there is any written assessment for the vacancy these details are also shared with the candidate and it must be done 10 days in advance of the scheduled interview date as per the employment policy.
6. If a candidate is based in some other city all necessary arrangement must be made for him like traveling tickets, hotel stay etc. before the scheduled interview dates. All necessary arrangement must be made by HR in coordination with the administration department. These all arrangement must be made to ensure that they participate fully in the selection process. (For the clause completely based on the approval/willingness expressed by concerned authority in Management/AVP-HR/Dean Academic / Dean Research)
7. The short listing of the candidate must be done purely on merit and it should be done only when there is the match of skill set and other desired qualities of the candidate with the details mentioned in the person specification. The candidate whose profile matches with the important criterion must be shortlisted. This is followed under ambition recruitment plan. No assumptions to be made regarding the qualities of the internal candidate.

Based on the recommendation by the interview panel the shortlisted candidates are instructed to appear for demonstrate their efficiency of class room teaching in front of concerned discipline HoD in continuation if that HoD has to be collect feedback from Students and submit the same to Interview Panel.
3. Selection is also an image building opportunity. The recruiter by behaving professionally can build up the positive image of the Institution because assessment at the time of recruitment and selection under recruitment and selection policy happens two ways. The Institution assesses the candidate and vice versa.
4. Different selection methods must be used before hiring a candidate. These selection methods must be able to assess the candidate rightly in terms of skills sets, behavioral aspect as mentioned in the person specification. This will remove any biasedness in an interview process.
5. No biasedness should be done while conducting interviews. The structure of the interview must remain the same for all candidates however the interview questions may differ but the level of questions in terms of easiness/difficulty should remain the same. The entire process of the interview should be based on the criterion defined under person specification and as explained by Recruitment policies in HRM.
6. The notes with important points of the interview must be taken by the interview panel, these notes can be referred back while making a decision regarding the most suitable candidate. All the notes prepared during
