Institution regularly conducts internal and external financial Audit regularly enumerate the various internal and external financial audit carried out during the last five years with the mechanism for settling audit objections.

Our institution prioritizes financial transparency and responsible resource management. To achieve this, we have established a robust system of regular internal and external financial audits.

Internal Audits:

A dedicated internal audit team conducts regular reviews of our financial transactions throughout the year and rectification of any discrepancies.

External Audits:

We undergo an annual external audit conducted by an independent, qualified auditor. This comprehensive audit provides an objective assessment of our financial health and adherence to accounting standards.

By implementing this comprehensive approach to financial auditing, we demonstrate our commitment to responsible financial stewardship and fostering trust with stakeholders.
